Resolution To Adopt Poverty Exemption Income Guidelines and Asset Test

The principal residence of persons who, in judgment of the supervisor and board of review, by reason of poverty, are unable to contribute to the public charges is eligible for exemption in whole or part from taxation under the General Property Tax Act, and the township board is required by Section 7u of the General Property Tax Act, Act 206 of 1893 (MCL211.7u). to adopt a policy, including an asset test, used to approve or deny poverty exemptions.

Principal residence is defined in MCL 211.7dd as a principal residence or qualified agricultural property. MCL 211.7u(1) states this section does not apply to property of a corporation. Even if a corporation or a limited liability company meets the definition of a principal residence or a qualified agricultural property, it is not eligible to receive a poverty exemption.

Delaware Township hereby adopts as an annual guideline:

First, the income level of the total household shall not exceed the federal poverty guideline as updated annually by the US Department of Health and Human Services as published by the State Tax Commission in their annual Procedural Changes Bulletin.

According to the US Census Bureau, income includes but is not limited to:

- Money, wages, salaries before deductions, regular contributions from persons not living in the residence.
- Net receipts from farm or non-farm self-employment (receipts from a person's own business, professional enterprise, or partnership, after business expense deductions)
- Regular payments from social security, railroad retirement, unemployment, worker's compensation, veteran's payments, public assistance, supplemental security income (SSI).
- Alimony, child support, military family allotments
- Private and government retirement and disability pensions, regular insurance, annuity payments
- College or University scholarships, grants, fellowships, assistantships
- Dividends, interest, and net income from rentals, royalties, estates, trusts, gambling, or lottery winnings.

Second, the policy shall include an asset test, the purpose to determine the resources available: cash, fixed assets or other property that could be converted into cash and used to pay property taxes in the year the poverty exemption is filed. The claimant is required to provide a list of assets that may include:

- A second home, land, vehicles
- Recreational vehicles such as campers, motorhomes, boats, and ATV's

- Buildings other than the residence
- Jewelry, antiques, and artwork
- Equipment, other than personal property of value
- Bank accounts and stocks
- Money received from the sale of property, such as, stocks, bonds, a house or car (unless the person is in the specific business of selling such property)
- Withdrawals of bank deposits and borrowed money
- Gifts, loans, lump-sum inheritances, and one time insurance payments
- Food or housing received in lieu of wages and the value of food and fuel produced and consumed on farms
- Federal non-cash benefits programs such as Medicare, Medicaid, food stamps, and school lunches

Third, MCL 2111.7u(1) allows for partial poverty exemptions of 75%, 50%, and 25% to be granted. A partial poverty exemption is an exemption of a percentage of the taxable value of the principal residence rather than the entire taxable value.

The guidelines allow an affidavit, Treasury Form 4988, to be filed for all persons residing in the residence who were not required to file federal or state income tax returns in the current year or in the immediately preceding year, including the owner of the property who is filing the exemption.

To be eligible, a person filing shall do all the following on an annual basis:

1. Be an owner of and occupy as a homestead the property for which an exemption is requested.
2. File a claim with the supervisor and board of review using Treasury Forms 5737 and 5739, accompanied by federal and state income tax returns for all persons residing in the homestead, including any property tax credit returns filed in the immediately preceding year or current year.
3. Produce a valid driver's license or other form of identification if requested.
4. Produce a deed, land contract, or other evidence of ownership of the property for which the exemption is requested, if requested by supervisor or board of review.
5. Meet the federal poverty income guidelines as determined annually by the United States Office of Management and budget, and hereby adopted by the Delaware Township Board.
6. Meet additional eligibility requirements as determined by the township board. Including one home on two acres of land, plus one vehicle, plus assets equal to twice the dollar value of the then applicable federal poverty guideline amount.

The board of review shall follow the above stated policy and federal guidelines in granting or denying the exemption.
